Description

Le Répit de la Bucaille is a year-round retreat dedicated to well-being, in the heart of the Normandy countryside. Designed as a retreat for caregivers, their loved ones and all travelers in search of calm, the estate offers a peaceful setting conducive to relaxation and disconnection.

Set in an authentic 18th-century Norman estate, the site offers three charming accommodations:

- La Mansarde, a cocooning room under the roof ;
- La Girouette, a small brick house full of character;
- Le Cellier, an old barn renovated in a warm and friendly spirit.

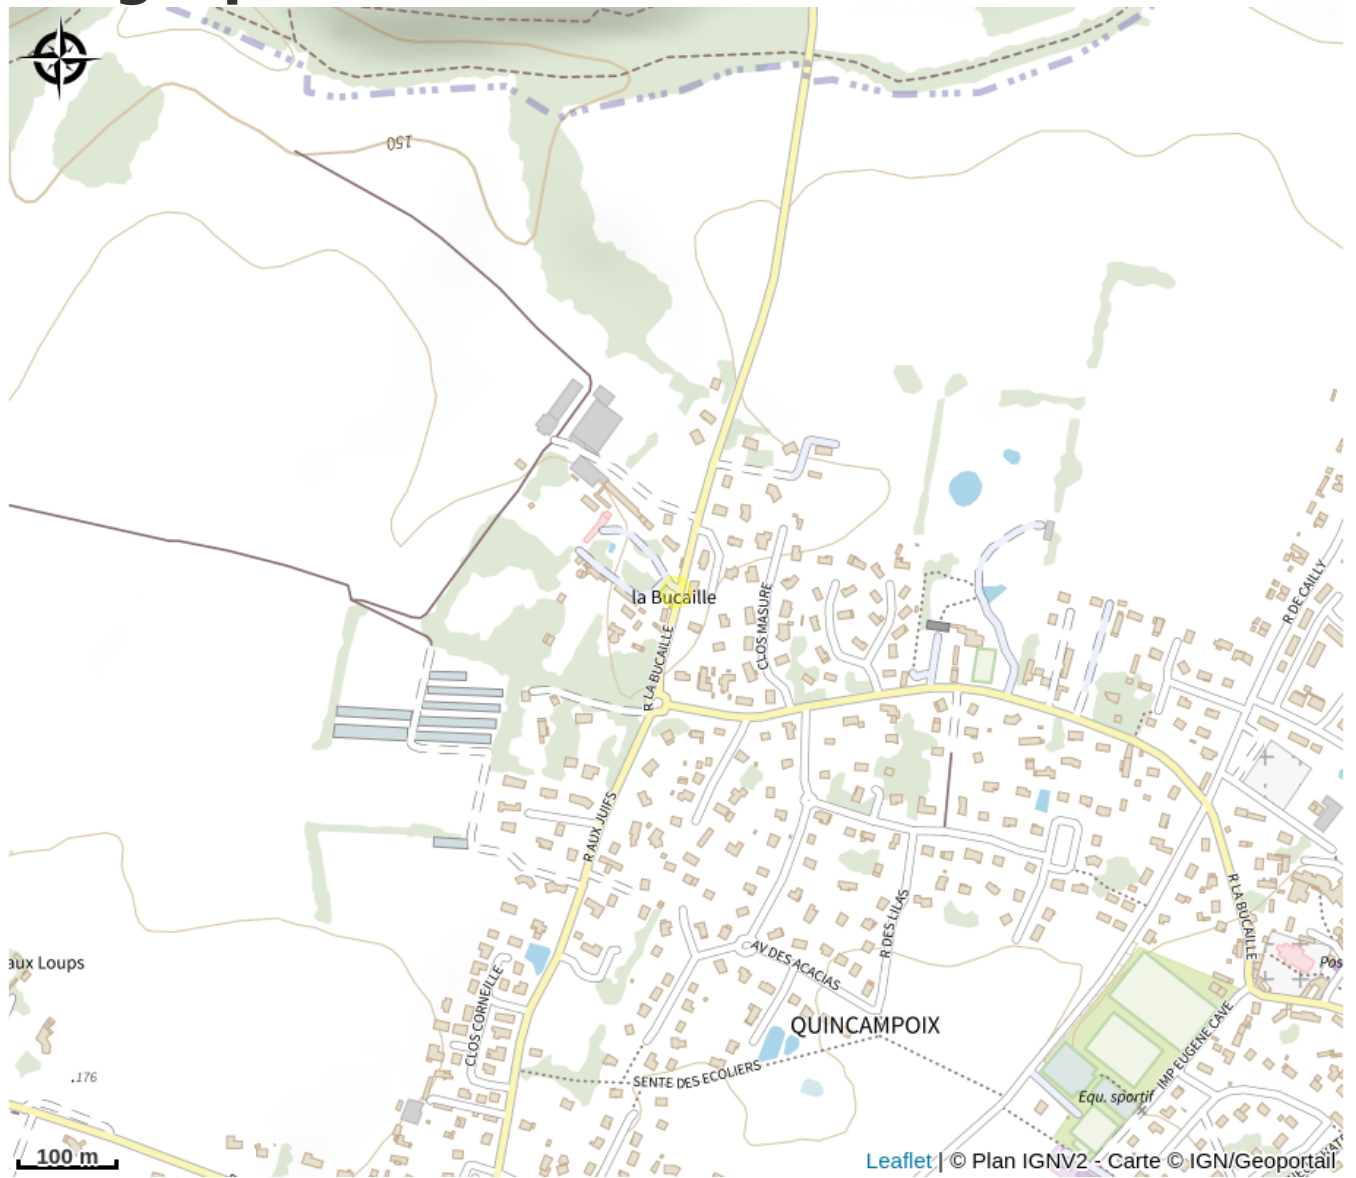

Nestled in wooded grounds, the property is just 20 minutes from Rouen, at the gateway to Normandy's Caux Vexin region, and less than an hour from the Côte d'Albâtre. Its privileged location makes it easy to discover the Normandy countryside, surrounding villages and walking and cycling routes, including the nearby Véloroute des Thermes.

The estate invites you to enjoy its unspoilt natural surroundings, with gardens, tree-lined paths, copses and sheep pastures. The spirit of the place is based on sharing, simplicity and serenity, while preserving the independence and tranquility of each guest.

Each accommodation has its own unique atmosphere, combining old-world charm, comfort and authenticity. The spaces have been designed to offer a relaxing interlude in a warm and soothing setting.

Le Répit de la Bucaille is the ideal address for a nature getaway, a restful stay or a wellness break in the countryside, in a welcoming and rejuvenating environment.
